A Nourishing Network is a peer-to-peer publishing experiment starting from the feed as a potentially multi-directional circulation device.

A Nourishing Network is initiated by servus.at (Davide Bevilacqua) in collaboration with varia.zone (Alice Strete & Manetta Berends) and is published in the context of AMRO 2020 (Arts Meets Radical Openness).

Editing: Davide Bevilacqua

Design and development: Manetta Berends, Alice Strete

Proofreading: Christopher Hüttnannberger

Paper: Clairefontaine 80g

Typeface: Gnu Unifont, WhiteRabbit, Ansi Shadow

Print and production: Varia

This project is produced with Free Software tools.

The feeds are made with Pelican & Weasyprint.
